MODS & ROCKERS: THE RETURN OF GROOVY MOVIES FROM THE SHAGADELIC SIXTIES!!

July 14 – 17, 2005 at the Egyptian Theatre

July 8 – 10, 2005 at the Aero Theatre (see previous flyer or check www.egyptiantheatre.com)

"Are you a Mod or a Rocker?" a female reporter quizzed Beatle Ringo Starr in A HARD DAY'S NIGHT. His famous response – "I'm a Mocker" – neatly summed up the cocky, carefree spirit of the 1960's, when every teenager with pegged pants and a shag (haircut, that is) started his weekend with "Ready, Steady, Go!" and droves of dollybirds in Twiggy/Suzy Kendall gear roamed the swinging streets of London. After a one-year hiatus – which gave us time to dig up even MORE swinging classics and rarities -- our Mods & Rockers Film Festival is back in all its day-glo glory for its 6th edition!! This year's Fest features a mini-tribute to author Jacqueline Susann with a brand-new print of VALLEY OF THE DOLLS plus the rarely-screened THE LOVE MACHINE. Other highlights include the Director's Cut of the landmark concert doc WOODSTOCK, Richard Lester's bittersweet San Francisco-in-the-Summer-of-Love drama PETULIA, and a bevy of groovy 60's nuggets that haven't seen a projector in many years, including ANGEL ANGEL DOWN WE GO and the wonderfully-titled Anthony Newley magnum opus CAN HIERONYMUS MERKIN EVER FORGET MERCY HUMPPE AND FIND TRUE HAPPINESS?

For more information on the Festival: www.modsandrockers.com

Mondo-A-Go-Go 60's Rarities!!

New 35 mm. Print! ANGEL, ANGEL, DOWN WE GO (a.k.a. CULT OF THE DAMNED), 1969, MGM/UA, 103 min. Robert Thom (writer of WILD IN THE STREETS) scripted and directed this jawdropping hymn to purple prose and psychedelic nihilism. Washed-up star Astrid (Jennifer Jones), her jaded millionaire spouse (Charles Aidman) and their searching-for-meaning daughter (Holly Near) all have the misfortune to meet Machiavellian popstar, Bogart Peter Stuyvesant (Jordan Christopher) who worms his way into the household with his band, The Rabbit Habit (!) in tow. While occasionally belting out catchy songs by Barry Mann/Cynthia Weil (more WILD IN THE STREETS alumni), and with the help of plenty of LSD, he alternately charms and intimidates everyone in this dysfunctional family. Imagine a remake of Pasolini's TEOREMA done in the American International, drive-in mindset, and you'll get some idea of what to expect. An absurdly tasteless vision of the evil flipside of the late 1960's counterculture. Be sure to look for Roddy McDowall and Lou Rawls in Jordan Christopher's spaced-out entourage! NOT ON VIDEO!

MARYJANE, 1968, MGM/UA, 104 min. Director Maury Dexter (THE MINI-SKIRT MOB) takes on the pot problem with Fabian (can you dig it??) as a hip high school teacher trying to investigate campus marijuana use. Caught between uptight faculty and distrustful kids, he's framed for possession and is soon jumping through hoops to not only clear his name but also help troubled youth Jerry (Michael Margotta) before the ruthless teen drug dealers can get the upper hand. Although a little dated, a surprisingly credible B picture looking at the mushrooming use of grass in 1960's Southern California high schools. With Diane McBain, Kevin Coughlin and a teenage Patty McCormack (THE BAD SEED). [Please note that this, the only surviving print of MARYJANE, is faded.] NOT ON VIDEO!

WOODSTOCK (The Director's Cut), 1970, Warner Bros., 228 min. Dir. Michael Wadleigh. In THE OMEGA MAN, it's no wonder that Charlton Heston, sole survivor of the human race, spends his days endlessly watching WOODSTOCK, the ultimate time capsule of the Love Generation. If any film captured the heady idealism, the free-form partying, drug-taking and love-making, and above all, the great music of the late 1960's, this is it. The Who, Crosby Stills & Nash, Sly & The Family Stone, Richie Havens, Joan Baez, Joe Cocker, Carlos Santana – need we say more? We'll be screening the much-extended Director's Cut of the film, featuring many songs and performers not included in the original release version.

Jacqueline Susann Night – New 35 mm. Prints!!

VALLEY OF THE DOLLS, 1967, 20th Century Fox, 123 min. Dir. Mark Robson. "You know it's bad to take liquor with those pills," warns small-town-girl turned super-model Anne (Barbara Parkins) to Broadway diva/train wreck Neely (Patty Duke). Neely's answer: "They work faster." If you want to see the great, bitchy, booze/angst/sex/drugs-fueled godmother to "Desperate Housewives" – you've come to the right place!! Based on author Jacqueline Susann's runaway best-seller – which practically created a cottage industry in glossy, sex-drenched soap operas on page and screen – VALLEY also co-stars the tragically beautiful Sharon Tate as B-movie queen Jennifer. Our enormous thanks to our friends at 20th Century Fox for striking a new print of this 60's classic!!

THE LOVE MACHINE, 1971, Columbia, 108 min. Dir. Jack Haley Jr. Mind-numbingly entertaining, guilty-pleasure fun and another unapologetically trashy ride from the pen of author Jacqueline Susann. John Phillip Law is Robin Stone, an unscrupulous TV executive who will figuratively and literally screw anyone he has to in order to rise to the top. He becomes entangled in liaisons with various beauties, and has to contend with Dyan Cannon, Jody Wexler and petulant gay photographer, Jerry Nelson (a memorable performance by David Hemmings), as he realizes his ambitions. But the precarious balancing act soon causes his ego-driven empire to begin to crumble. With a supporting cast that includes Robert Ryan, Jackie Cooper. Dionne Warwick sings the opening theme "He's Moving On." NOT ON VIDEO!

Double Feature:

PETULIA, 1968, Warner Bros., 105 min. Dir. Richard Lester. Truly one of the great overlooked films of the late 60's, PETULIA stars George C. Scott as a middle-aged physician who finds himself drawn into the mad, idealistic and desperately sad whirlwind life of unhappily married Julie Christie at the height of San Francisco's Summer of Love. Beautifully photographed by the great Nicolas Roeg, and featuring brief, ultra-rare appearances in their prime by Janis Joplin (with Big Brother & The Holding Company) and The Grateful Dead, PETULIA captures both the sunshine optimism of the 60's and the melancholy afterglow soon to come when the Summer of Love faded away ...

Uncut Full-Length Version!! CAN HIERONYMUS MERKIN EVER FORGET MERCY HUMPPE AND FIND TRUE HAPPINESS?, 1969, Universal, 107 min. It's hard to believe, but this movie actually exists! In the late-1960's, Anthony Newley was on a seemingly unstoppable roll as an actor (SWEET NOVEMBER, DR. DOLITTLE) and composer (WILLY WONKA & THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY, STOP THE WORLD I WANT TO GET OFF) – and HIERONYMUS MERKIN was meant to be his magnum opus, his answer to Fellini's 8-1/2. And it is – sort of. Newley (who also directed and wrote the script) stars as a man watching a film of his own life unspool before his eyes. Joan Collins (who was Newley's wife at the time) co-stars as a temptress named (are you ready for this?) "Polyester Poontang," with comic great Milton Berle as the Mephistopheles-like "Goodtime Eddie Filth" who leads poor Hieronymus astray time after time. Will he ever recapture the bliss of his lost love, Mercy Humppe? Come and find out for yourself ...!! [Note: we'll be screening the uncut version of the film, which was Rated "X" on original release. No One Under 17 Will Be Admitted to this Screening.]

Plus, hot on the heels of the recent revelations about the identity of "Deep Throat" is our screening of Alan J. Pakula's ALL THE PRESIDENT'S MEN. At the end of July we'll be showcasing two legendary Hitchcock thrillers, PSYCHO and REAR WINDOW, the sparkling Audrey Hepburn comedy BREAKFAST AT TIFFANY'S with a special Cocktail Party and Fashion Show in honor of the movie, a pair of brilliant comic gems directed by Billy Wilder and starring the great Jack Lemmon, THE APARTMENT and SOME LIKE IT HOT, and the acclaimed adaptation of Harper Lee's novel TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD as part of a special One-Night Tribute to actor Brock Peters.

Cinema Classics – Steven Spielberg Double Feature

RAIDERS OF THE LOST ARK, 1981, Paramount, 115 min. Archaeologist Harrison Ford battles occult-obsessed Nazis and former girlfriend Karen Allen as he attempts to wrest the Ark of the Covenant from the lost Egyptian city of Tanis. Brilliant, non-stop adventure from director Steven Spielberg and producer George Lucas that mixes 1930's-style matinee thrills with the ominous threat of Hitler's henchmen controlling one of history's most powerful objects. With terrific support from Paul Freeman as Indy's suave nemesis Belloq, Ronald Lacey as the sinister Nazi officer Toht, and John Rhys-Davies as Indy's right-hand man Sallah. Imaginatively written by Lawrence Kasdan (based on Lucas and Philip Kaufman's original story), aided by a typically stirring John Williams score, one of his very best. Even if you've seen RAIDERS a dozen times – come back and see it again!

CLOSE ENCOUNTERS OF THE THIRD KIND, 1977, Columbia, 135 min. "We Are Not Alone ..." Director Steven Spielberg's thrilling, suspenseful and somehow very "human" speculation on the possibility of alien contact with mankind was one of the most surprising blockbusters of the 1970's. Richard Dreyfuss does a terrific job of anchoring the film as an unhappily married Everyman who's suddenly possessed – along with hundreds of others – with visions of a strange tower rising up. And then the colored lights start appearing in the night sky ... The passages of the massive alien ships appearing over the desert – told almost entirely without dialogue – are among the radiantly beautiful in all of Spielberg's career. With Francois Truffaut, Teri Garr, Melinda Dillon, Bob Balaban.

DAYS OF HEAVEN, 1978, Paramount, 95 min. Director Terence Malick's lyrical tone poem set at the turn of the 20th century tracks impoverished Chicago couple, Richard Gere and Brooke Adams as they migrate to the Texas Panhandle and masquerade as brother and sister to find farm work. When their smitten, terminally ill boss (Sam Shepard) proposes to Adams, the couple see an eventual way out of their poverty if Adams accepts. But after the marriage, Shepard seemingly recovers, and a set of tragic complications gradually unfold. Gorgeous, thoughtful and at times achingly romantic, this ambitious working class epic set the standard for Malick's future films – passionate, moody and serene meditations on the human condition set in a tragic dimension. Nestor Alemendros won the Oscar for Best Cinematography. Co-starring Linda Manz.

ALL THE PRESIDENT'S MEN, 1976, Warner Bros., 138 min. "We're about to accuse Haldeman, who only happens to be the second most important man in this country, of conducting a criminal conspiracy from inside the White House. It would be nice if we were right." With the recent revelations about the true identity of "Deep Throat," what better time is there to take another look at director Alan J. Pakula's engrossing account of the investigation into the cover-up of the break-in at the Watergate Hotel? Robert Redford and Dustin Hoffman star as Washington Post reporters Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein, who doggedly follow the elusive trail of evidence, with Jason Robards in a great, crusty turn as Post editor Ben Bradlee, and Hal Holbrook as that mysterious man in the parking garage ...

THE STING, 1973, Universal, 129 min. Dir. George Roy Hill. Young gambler-on-the-run Robert Redford teams up with wisecracking old hand Paul Newman, and together they hatch a brilliantly complicated scheme to take revenge on vicious mobster Robert Shaw. SANDRA (A.K.A LE VAGHE STELLE DELL'ORSA), 1965, Columbia, 95 min. Director Luchini Visconti. Sandra (a voluptuous and pouty Claudia Cardinale) returns to her home in Tuscany to honor her father's death. The intense and rarely screened psychological drama comes from the master filmmaker

Cinema Classics – Hitchcock Double Feature:

PSYCHO, 1960, Universal, 109 min. Coming off comparatively big budget NORTH BY NORTHWEST, director Alfred Hitchcock decided he wanted to make a nice little, low budget B&W film for a change of pace. PSYCHO was the result, and the shock waves are still reverberating. Lovely Phoenix embezzler, Marion Crane (Janet Leigh), is forced to take refuge from a rainstorm off the beaten track of a lonely California highway. Unfortunately, she checks in at the Bates Motel, presided over by young Norman Bates (Anthony Perkins), a strange fellow living with his mother in the nearby mansion. Hitchcock used the small crew from his popular TV show for this hair-raising example of California Gothic, and it still remains one of the most influential thrillers ever made, leaving its mark on everything from TEXAS CHAINSAW MASSACRE to SILENCE OF THE LAMBS. With Vera Miles and John Gavin.

REAR WINDOW, 1954, Universal, 112 min. "See It! - If your nerves can stand it after PSYCHO!" That was the tagline for the 1962 re-release of one of director Alfred Hitchcock's most rigorously structured, most nailbiting thrillers. Adapted from a short story by noir master Cornell Woolrich, REAR WINDOW stars James Stewart as L.B. Jeffries, an ace photographer bound to a wheelchair after breaking his leg on assignment. Despite receiving visits from his high-fashion sweetheart, Lisa (Grace Kelly), Jeffries is bored and soon resorts to spying on his tenement neighbors through a telephoto lens. Suddenly, he has cause to regret his indiscretion – it seems the ailing wife of a traveling salesman neighbor (superb heavy Raymond Burr) has taken an abrupt trip. Or has she really, as Jeffries believes, been hacked up into small pieces and disposed of by her hulking spouse? "The experience is not so much like watching a movie, as like ... well, like spying on your neighbors. Hitchcock traps us right from the first." – Roger Ebert, Chicago Sun Times.

I mean a girl just can't go to Sing Sing with a green face,"* – so sighs Audrey Hepburn's girl-about-town Holly Golightly, breezing ever-so-gently through the real world with hardly a ripple. Adapted from Truman Capote's bestselling romance by director Blake Edwards (THE PINK PANTHER, THE PARTY) and writer George Axelrod, and featuring what is arguably Henry Mancini's greatest score, highlighted by the lovely, bittersweet "Moon River."

Oscar-winner for Best Picture, Director and Screenplay (Wilder and I.A.L. Diamond).

SOME LIKE IT HOT, 1959, UA (Columbia), 120 min. Cross-dressing musicians Tony Curtis and Jack Lemmon take it on the lam from the Chicago mob, while luscious Marilyn Monroe falls for a playboy who's a playgirl ... BEST LITTLE WHOREHOUSE IN TEXAS, 1982, Universal, 114 min. For those who have yet to patronize a whorehouse, here is your chance from the safety of the Egyptian Theatre! And what better hostess than Dolly Parton as she charms, cajoles and sings her way into your psyche, fighting to keep her pleasure palace open, along with the town sheriff, played with aplomb by Burt Reynolds. A great supporting cast is headed by Charles Durning, who was nominated for an Oscar in the Best Supporting Actor category. Dom Deluise and Jim Nabors add to the laughs and colorful lines of dialogue. This movie was a stage musical before transitioning to the screen and the musical numbers feel integral, not made to be music videos or simply as backdrops for hit songs. We guess director Colin Higgins worked well with Dolly Parton as he also directed her in 9 to 5.

Boris Karloff Tribute:

FRANKENSTEIN, 1931, Universal, 70 min. Dir. James Whale. "A Monster Science Created – But Could Not Destroy!" Boris Karloff had appeared in over 75 films before FRANKENSTEIN turned him almost-overnight into a screen legend. His performance here – anguished, eloquent, wordless – remains one of the most hauntingly powerful in all cinema. With Colin Clive, Edward Van Sloan, Dwight Frye.

>> Also showing at The Aero on July 31.

THE MASK OF FU MANCHU, 1932, MGM (Warner Bros.), 68 min. Dir. Charles Brabin. Nayland Smith (Lewis Stone) and Professor Von Berg (Jean Hersholt) travel to the mysterious East with their entourage (including beefcake hero Charles Starrett and token blonde Karen Morley), to unearth the tomb of Ghengis Khan. But novelist Sax Rohmer's nefarious arch super-villain, Fu Manchu (perfectly cast Boris Karloff) and his luscious, equally-evil daughter played by Myrna Loy (yes! Nora of THE THIN MAN films!) see it as the perfect opportunity to steal Khan's ceremonial mask and sword, magical relics that will enable them to rule the world. Brazen sexual innuendo and some surprisingly sadistic violence embellish this deliciously campy artifact of pre-Hays Code horror.

U.S. Premiere:

DUMPLINGS, 2004, Lions Gate, 91 min. The feature length version of the segment that Hong Kong director Fruit Chan contributed to Asian horror anthology THREE...EXTREMES is an alternately horrific, surreally beautiful and darkly humorous fable about the pursuit of youth at all costs. Ching (Miriam Yeung), the insecure, middle-aged wife of philandering jet-set businessman, Lee (Tony Leung Ka-Fai) goes to carefree back alley abortionist and culinary expert, Aunt Mei (Bai Ling) to buy her high-priced dumplings that reportedly restore one's youth. But she gets a lot more than she bargained for along the way in the form of unexpected and unwelcome complications. A rewardingly ghoulish parable about being careful what you wish for. Not for the squeamish. [DUMPLINGS will be released theatrically in the U.S. by Lions Gate.] NOT ON VIDEO!

Boris Karloff Tribute -- 70th Anniversary Screenings!

BRIDE OF FRANKENSTEIN, 1935, Universal, 75 min. Dir. James Whale. "Warning! The Monster Demands a Mate!" Widely considered the high point of the 1930's Universal Horror cycle, BRIDE is a brilliant blend of black humor and Gothic style. Boris Karloff reprises his greatest role as The Monster, with Colin Clive as his reluctant "father," the hilariously creepy Ernest Thesiger as Dr. Pretorius, and Elsa Lanchester as the screaming-mimi Bride.

>> Also showing at the Aero on July 31.

THE RAVEN, 1935, Universal, 61 min. Dir. Lew Landers. "Maybe if a man is ugly, he does ugly things ...!" Demented, disappointed-in-love surgeon Bela Lugosi operates on escaped murderer Boris Karloff, disfiguring him. He then uses the tormented fugitive as an instrument for revenge against his enemies, including the woman (Irene Ware) who spurned him. Truly deranged, featuring Lugosi's Poe-inspired house of horrors, this remains one of Universal's fastest-moving, most maniacal chillers.

Introduction to screening by director Curtis Harrington, who will share memories of his friendship with BRIDE OF FRANKENSTEIN filmmaker James Whale.

Italian Pulp Showcase -- Classic Giallo Double-Header:

30th Anniversary! DEEP RED, 1975, 106 min. Dir. Dario Argento. From the opening image of a child slashing someone and a bloody knife dropping to the floor, the viewer is plunged into an ever-deepening pool of repressed terrors. David Hemmings turns in a fascinating, complex performance as Marcus Daly, a pianist sucked into a whirlpool of escalating homicide after he accidentally witnesses the murder of psychic, Macha Meril. Everything irrational and unbearable is present in one of Argento's most justly-famous giallos, where something as simple as the shot of a lizard writhing on the floor could just as easily represent a child's wounded psyche, bound some day to erupt in spectacular fits of murder. With Daria Nicolodi.

ONE ON TOP OF THE OTHER (a.k.a. PERVERSION STORY), 1969, 99 min. Celebrity San Francisco doctor Jean Sorel's life goes topsy-turvy when his asthmatic wife Marisa Mell (DANGER: DIABOLIK) dies from a prescription overdose -- but soon after he spots her blonde double, stripping at a sleazy North Beach sex club! Before long, he's charged with his wife's murder. Of course, he can count on his mistress Elsa Martinelli (BLOOD AND ROSES) to help clear him...or can he? Italian pulp-meister Lucio Fulci directs a perfect and beguilingly perverse example of the giallo suspense genre. Co-starring John Ireland, Faith Domergue. NOT ON VIDEO!

Boris Karloff Tribute – Double Feature:

THE INVISIBLE RAY, 1936, Universal, 81 min. Dir. Lambert Hillyer. A wildly bizarre, almost giddy fusion of cosmic sci-fi, gothic horror and jungle-action picture, THE INVISIBLE RAY stars the great Boris Karloff as Dr. Janos Rukh, a brilliant if antisocial scientist who's discovered a mysterious new element, Radium "X." Accompanied by colleague Bela Lugosi (in a rare good-guy role), the two lead an expedition to uncharted Africa with Karloff's long-suffering wife Frances Drake and her erstwhile lover Frank Lawton – a journey with horrifying repercussions for Karloff once he's exposed to Radium "X's" awful powers ... Watch for the mind-boggling voyage across the Universe in the opening scenes, and for Violet Kemble as Karloff's stone-faced mother, who provides the film's amazingly explosive climax ...!

BEDLAM, 1946, RKO (Warner Bros.), 79 min. Nell Bowen (Anna Lee), courageous protege of blustery Lord Mortimer (Billy House) tries to affect reforms in 18th century London's infamous madhouse, Bedlam. But she doesn't count on getting committed herself (!) after she crosses paths with asylum head, George Sims (a devilishly cunning Boris Karloff). Karloff gives one of his most nuanced performances as Sims, fawning to his betters in public, but a cruel torture master behind locked doors. Richard Fraser is perfect as a prim Quaker friend of Nell's trying to rescue her from the twisted labyrinth of abuse and lunacy. Inspired by the engravings of William Hogarth, Mark Robson directs to chilling effect with all of maestro producer Val Lewton's trademark atmospherics in full play.

Impetuous researcher Jeffrey Combs develops a serum that can bring back the dead, something that his new roommate, Bruce Abbott, hadn't exactly bargained on. Delivers on every front with laughs, shocks and genuine shivers escalating until the outrageous gore-drenched finale. Classic, dystopian 70's sci-fi starring Eric Braeden as Dr. Charles Forbin, a humane, thoughtful scientist chosen to oversee the U.S. government's new computerized defense system. It turns out the Russians have a super-brain of their own – and when the two computers start talking ... it's Microsoft! Just kidding – it's actually the prelude to apocalypse in this superb, future-shock thriller from the director of THE TAKING OF PELHAM ONE TWO THREE. Discussion following with actor Eric Braeden.

Director/writer Dan O'Bannon's gory, gleeful, punk-rock classic is the godfather to such revisionist zombie flicks as the recent SHAUN OF THE DEAD. Italian Pulp Showcase – 70's Crime Double-Header:

ALMOST HUMAN (MILANO ODIÀ: LA POLIZIA NON PUÒ SPARARE), 1974, Dania Film s.r.l., 90 min. Come help celebrate No Shame Films' recent DVD release of director Umberto Lenzi (SPASMO) and writer Ernesto Gastaldi's (ALL THE COLORS OF THE DARK) rare grindhouse epic that actually delivers in the "I-can't-believe-what-I'm-seeing-on-screen" province. Big mouth sociopath Tomas Milian convinces his crime partners that it would be a lucrative idea to kidnap-for-ransom the teen daughter of a wealthy businessman. But along the way, things go progressively wrong, spurring the sadistic, chip-on-his-shoulder Milian to massacre an astounding number of people who cross his path at the wrong moment. Uncompromisingly downbeat, refusing to render a happy ending for any of its characters, including hardboiled pursuing cop Henry Silva, and set to a pulsating score by Ennio Morricone, this is a certifiable pulp classic with some of the most shocking moments in 1970s action cinema. With Anita Strindberg, Laura Belli. [Please note that this, the only surviving print of ALMOST HUMAN, is slightly faded.]

THE ITALIAN CONNECTION (LA MALA ORDINA), 1972, Xenon Films, 92 min. NYC mob boss Cyril Cusack dispatches two emotionally-dead hitmen (Henry Silva and Woody Strode) to Milan to execute a small time pimp (Mario Adorf, co-star of THE TIN DRUM) for allegedly absconding with a valuable drug shipment. The only problem is Adorf is a scapegoat for the real guilty party. Is it actually local crimelord Adolfo Celi? or the beautiful Luciana Paluzzi? or perhaps one of his stable of prostitutes? No answers are forthcoming, and Adorf's only option is to flee. And flee he does in the relentless remainder of the saga, including one of the most heartpounding, grueling foot pursuits ever committed to celluloid, all culminating in a brutal confrontation in an auto graveyard. Late director Fernando di Leo has finally come up for re-evaluation (in part, thanks to his championing by Quentin Tarantino) – THE ITALIAN CONNECTION shows him to be a genuine master of the 1970s Euro crime film.

New 35 mm. Print! DEATH RIDES A HORSE, 1967, MGM/UA (Columbia Pictures Repertory), 114 min. Easily the best of director Giulio Petroni's five Spaghetti's, this fierce vengeance saga borrows more than a little from FOR A FEW DOLLARS MORE (not surprising, since they share the same writer, Luciano Vincenzoni). Two bounty hunters (Lee Van Cleef and DANGER: DIABOLIK's John Philip Law) seek brutal retribution on a gang of killers, to the tune of a typically wild Ennio Morricone score. Tough, taut, claustrophobic and frequently macabre – a real winner.

GOD FORGIVES, I DON'T, 1969, MGM/UA (Columbia Pictures Repertory), 101 min. Dir. Giuseppe Colizzi. This delightfully bigger-than-life tall tale finds two rival bounty hunters (Terence Hill and Bud Spencer of the TRINITY films in their first effort together) out to track Hill's former mentor, the wise-cracking, sadistic and supposedly-dead villain, Bill San Antonio (the much underrated Frank Wolff). CAN'T STOP THE MUSICALS:

MORE MUSICALS FROM THE 1970's and 80's!!

July 21 – 29, 2005 at the Aero theatre.

Pull on your tights, strap on a guitar and a glitter wig, or just bring your enthusiastic voice and energy as we explore the musicals of the 1970's and 1980's in all their big screen glory!!

In the wake of MOULIN ROUGE and CHICAGO, two blockbusters that served to re-ignite audience interest in movie musicals, and following in the path of the series that we presented at the Egyptian theatre the past two years, let's look at an era not normally thought of as rich territory for filmed musicals: the 1970's and 1980's. While some of these musicals came straight from the Broadway stage like CABARET and 1776, others were highly original. Don't miss GREASE, an irresistible teen-dream musical with a soundtrack of wall-to-wall hits; the rock musical, PHANTOM OF THE PARADISE and Alan Parker's intense interpretation of Pink Floyd's classic album THE WALL -- all on the big screen where they were meant to be seen!!

Series Compiled by: Gwen Deglise & Andrew Crane.

PINK FLOYD – THE WALL, 1982, Warner Bros., 99 min. Dir. Alan Parker.

Both disturbing and bedazzling, PINK FLOYD: THE WALL is a must-see film for any music lover.

Cutthroat record producer Swann (Paul Williams, who also wrote the fine score) steals both the music and the girl from composer Winslow Leech (William Finley). Horribly disfigured in an attempt to reclaim his artistic credit, Leech becomes The Phantom at Swann's new rock palace, The Paradise. Jessica Harper, contributing her creamy alto, plays Leech's love interest, and Gerrit Graham is hysterical as glitter-rock star "Beef." Double feature:

Ray Harryhausen in Person Tribute:

FIRST MEN IN THE MOON, 1964, Columbia, 103 min. Dir. Nathan Juran. In Juran's extremely entertaining adaptation of H.G. Wells' novel, turn-of the century British inventor Lionel Jeffries enlists Edward Judd and fiancée Martha Hyer in his scheme to reach the moon using anti-gravity paint. Once the trio hits the lunar landscape, they're captured by a weird subterranean insect race, the Selenites, and we're treated to some of Ray Harryhausen's most enjoyable special effects. An infectious blend of Victorian sci-fi, sweet humor and high adventure.

THE BEAST FROM 20,000 FATHOMS, 1953, Warner Bros., 80 min. Dir. Eugene Lourie. A giant prehistoric creature called a rhedosaurus is awakened from his icy slumber by nuclear testing and travels to New York City, where he takes his bad temper out on the stunned population. Based on a short story by longtime Harryhausen pal Ray Bradbury (they met years earlier as members of the Los Angeles Science Fiction Society, along with Forrest Ackerman!) Starring Paul Christian, Paula Raymond, Kenneth Tobey, Steve Brodie.

Boris Karloff Double feature:

FRANKENSTEIN, 1931, Universal, 70 min. Dir. James Whale. "A Monster Science Created – But Could Not Destroy!" Boris Karloff had appeared in over 75 films before FRANKENSTEIN turned him almost-overnight into a screen legend. His performance here – anguished, eloquent, wordless – remains one of the most hauntingly powerful in all cinema. With Colin Clive, Edward Van Sloan, Dwight Frye.

>>Also showing at the Egyptian on August 5.

BRIDE OF FRANKENSTEIN, 1935, Universal, 75 min. Dir. James Whale. "Warning! The Monster Demands a Mate!" Widely considered the high point of the 1930's Universal Horror cycle, BRIDE is a brilliant blend of black humor and Gothic style. Boris Karloff reprises his greatest role as The Monster, with Colin Clive as his reluctant "father," the hilariously creepy Ernest Thesiger as Dr. Pretorius, and Elsa Lanchester as the screaming-mimi Bride.

Introduction to screening by director Curtis Harrington, who will share memories of his friendship with director James Whale.

>>Also showing at the Egyptian on August 6.

Kubrick Mini Tribute!

70 MM! 2001: A SPACE ODYSSEY, 1968, Warner Bros. Classics, 139 min. "I'm sorry, Dave, I'm afraid I can't do that," murmurs supercomputer HAL 9000 as it attempts to eliminate bothersome human astronaut Keir Dullea in master filmmaker Stanley Kubrick's literally mind-blowing meditation on the inherent dangers (and wonders) of technology, the limitless vistas of space, and the future of the human race itself. Based on a 1948 short story "The Sentinel" by Arthur C. Clarke, "2001" was reconceived by Kubrick himself, working with author Clarke to create the ultimate Journey into the Unknown. But if you think you've seen "2001," think again – until recently, the film was only available in a 35 mm. version that reduced Kubrick's legendary visuals (and the spectacular 6-track stereo sound) to a pale shadow of their true glory. Before his death, Kubrick oversaw a painstaking, frame-by-frame restoration of the film in 70 mm. – resulting in a version that looks and sounds as good (if not better) than the original 1968 release!!

Kubrick Mini Tribute! 25th Anniversary Screening!!

THE SHINING, 1980, Warner Bros., 142 min. Dir. Stanley Kubrick. A brilliant exercise in pure supernatural terror, THE SHINING stars Jack Nicholson as a frustrated writer who takes the job of winter caretaker (along with wife Shelley Duvall and son Danny Lloyd) at an enormous mountain hotel, in the hope that snow and solitude will give him peace of mind. He finds just the opposite, as the hotel's own horrific past quickly overtakes him in this soul-chilling adaptation of Stephen King's novel.

>> Also showing at The Egyptian on August 4.

Kubrick Mini Tribute!

A CLOCKWORK ORANGE, 1971, Warner Bros., 137 min. Kubrick was so stunned by Malcolm McDowell's debut in IF... that he was reportedly unwilling to begin his film of Anthony Burgess' savagely brutal, futuristic satire until he could be assured of McDowell's participation. This benchmark cinematic prophecy proved to be more foresighted than anyone dreamed, as the punk explosion and skinhead-fomented race riots demonstrated in the later '70s. In the role he is most identified with, McDowell is both frightening and funny, and in the process gives sinister new meaning to beloved tune Singin' In The Rain.

The film contains sexual and violent images that could not be suitable for children.

THE TEXAS CHAINSAW MASSACRE, 1974, WPA, 83 min. One of the best American horror films from the 1970's and certainly one of the scariest movies ever made, TEXAS CHAINSAW MASSACRE works so well because the unknown actors and real-life locations burn themselves into your memory, assuming a nightmarishly twisted reality that lingers long after you've left the theatre. After hearing of a cemetery desecration, Marilyn Burns and friends go on a jaunt in the broiling Texas countryside to make sure her grandparents' graves are okay, only to become stranded at the rural home of a family of inbred cannibals. Director Tobe Hooper expertly escalates the horror until you can't stand it anymore...then goes one step further. With Gunnar Hansen, Ed Neal. Discussion following with director Tobe Hooper (schedule permitting).

The film contains violent images and references and is not suitable for children

DUNE, 1984, Universal, 140 min. Genius director David Lynch's psychedelic sci-fi masterpiece is finally back on the big screen. More than twenty years old, it still holds up as one of the most intense depictions of a galactic cosmology. Rumors say Lynch turned down the project, RETURN OF THE JEDI, to direct DUNE and that the part of the emperor was originally offered to Salvador Dalì. Young aristocrat Paul Usul Muad'Dib Atreides (Kyle MacLachlan) is sent to planet Dune in order to find the only species that can save space travel and the future of the Universe. Also starring Virginia Madsen (SIDEWAYS), Silvana Mangano (DEATH IN VENICE), Brad Dourif (THE LORD OF THE RINGS), Max Von Sydow (THE EXORCIST), Patrick Stewart (STAR TREK) and Sting.

>>Also showing at the Egyptian on August 20.

Saturday, August 13 – 7:30 PM

JAWS, 1975, Universal, 124 min. Director Steven Spielberg rocketed to the front of the class with this terrific mixture of suspense, humor and modern Americana, based on the Peter Benchley best-seller. Roy Scheider is excellent as a New England sheriff confronting crowds of sunbathers, self-serving local politicians and – most importantly – a monstrous Great White Shark over a July 4th weekend. With Robert Shaw, Richard Dreyfuss.

Potential Guest: Steven Spielberg, Carl Gottlieb.

New 35 MM Print! STAR TREK II: THE WRATH OF KHAN, 1982, Paramount, 114 min. Dir. Nicholas Meyer. Widely hailed as the best of the STAR TREK films, THE WRATH OF KHAN is also one of the finest science-fiction films of the past twenty years, period. Beloved favorites William Shatner, Leonard Nimoy, DeForest Kelly, George Takei, Walter Koenig and the other crewmembers of the Starship Enterprise were never better, matched by the grand, ferocious energy of Ricardo Montalban as the vengeful Khan. Discussion following with director Nicholas Meyer.
