Platinum Career: A Tribute to Kim Novak

July 30 - August 1, 2010 - Egyptian Theatre

In 1956, Kim Novak appeared at the Venice Film Festival for the first time. In the last three decades, this is her first official appearance. A woman who has become known for her difficult temperament was finally brought to the red carpet, followed by a series of interviews. IMDb released an article about her career, and a series of her films were aired on television around the world. Kim Novak: Inside Out is the feature-length documentary that chronicles her life and career. Kim Novak, A Legend Reborn: From the Golden Globe Award-winning screenwriter of The Right Stuff, the film tells the story of a woman who has become known for her difficult temperament. Platinum Career is the perfect opportunity to see some of the best films ever made.
